Renewals decisions such as pay, abandon, and other instructions can be made right from your FIP system. Because data is coming directly from your docketing system you gain greater control, efficiency and accuracy.

The FIP Renewals Manager allows you to electronically instruct, track status, and seamlessly communicate directly with the CPA Global renewals team—minimizing the risk of data errors.

On a regular basis, FIP will extract and send core matter data to CPA Global to calculate annuity due dates. Depending on your organization's preferences, data transmission can be done automatically or manually. CPA Global will then respond back to FIP with an acknowledgement of your data extraction, as well as notification of any data discrepancies that need to be reviewed—another step in managing risk and protecting your IP portfolio. FIP Renewals Manager also has the ability to provide you with key event information such as confirmation of payment and receipt of official receipts.

You can select multiple cases to send instructions on.

Simply select the instruction from the menu and send them to CPA.

Is it difficult to set-up?

No! CPA Global will manage the entire process through to completion. The two main components to start taking advantage of the FIP Renewals Manager is enabling the FIP renewals interface and executing a CPA Global Renewals Service Agreement to initiate the business take-on (BTO) process for your patent cases. To ensure a smooth transition, CPA Global will assign a dedicated project manager that will be responsible for coordinating both the interface implementation and the BTO process.

During the course of the project, a series of checks will be performed to help validate that data is properly synchronized between your FIP system and CPA Global Renewals.
